

EastMed 1st Year Activities

Institutional Strengthening

IT equipments and Lab items to countries in the project area
Translation of FAO technical documents

Hellenic Ministry of Rural Development and Food
Hellenic Ministry of Foreign Affairs

Staff Training and Development

Otolith morphometry and the equipment used for its reading

Ad-hoc on the field training course on otolith/spines sectioning and age reading (Athens, Greece, 19-20 April 2010)

FAO Fisheries consultants delivering a lecture in Egypt

Fish vendor in Egypt

Staff from the General Authority For Fisheries Resources Development gathering biological data using equipment supplied by the project

1st mission of the pilot survey on fisheries dependent data collection (Egypt, 7-26 Nov 2010)

Participants undertaking some exercises during the stock assessment training course

Training Course on Single-species Length based Stock Assessment Methods (Kavala, Greece, 21-25 Feb 2011)

Data Collection and Analyses

Field data collectors at work in Lebanon

Sub-regional Workshop on Collection and Organization of Data (Batroun, Lebanon, 14-17 sep 2010)

Portunus segnis a commercially important lessepsian species
Lagocephalus scleratus a lessepsian species responsible for damaging nets

Sub-regional Technical Meeting on the Lessepsian migration and its impact on Eastern Mediterranean fishery (Nicosia, Cyprus, 7-10 Dec 2010)

Experts participating at the 13th Session General Fisheries Commission (GFCM) Scientific Advisory Committee (SAC) Marseille 2011

Participation of Experts to Regional Meetings

Increased Participation and Cooperation

Inception Meeting of the EastMed Project

1st Coordination Committee of the EastMed Project (Athens, Greece 19-20 April 2010)

Workshop on Fisheries Management; Meeting Folder - The Tragedy of the Commons.

Workshop on Fisheries Management Strategies and Approaches

Stand of the Mediterranean projects at the FAO 29th Session of the Committee on Fisheries (COFI) Rome 2011

Coordination among the sub-regional projects and with the GFCM

EastMed Web site

FAO EastMed Project website

EastMed Technical Documents

EastMed Technical documents